Bird eye views

This solid house built in 1981 on 774sqms, enjoys a sweeping northern panorama. It holds a commanding corner position in a quiet street. The elevated block has an enviable leafy outlook over Toowong. Great thought was given to the sites perfect aspect in the homes planning, an open lounge with raked ceilings, a brick fireplace to warm the house, and plenty of access to the northern light. An easy, low maintenance property over two levels, it is spacious, hardy, with ample storage. This is the first time this home has been offered for sale.

The sweetest spot; so close to so many celebrated schools, easy access to UQ, midway between great food shopping at Toowong Village or fashion and cinemas at Indooroopilly, not to mention a short stroll to the Toowong Bowls club for a cool beer.
