This fabulous five-bedroom 1215 m2 home offers premium location within prestigious Corinda. With family lifestyle and entertaining in mind, the sophisticated kitchen is the heart of the home and is designed for the serious cook, with upscale appliances, stone benchtops, crisp cabinetry, and ample storage. The open plan design offers a seamless integration with the outdoors. The 38 m2 private rear deck commands spectacular views of Mt Coot-tha and glimpses of the river. Framed by established tropical gardens, this home is perfect for entertaining and alfresco dining. The spacious split-level property is spread over three lots and offers separate living quarters for a large or growing family, three generous bathrooms, double French timber doors, and split air conditioning throughout. A garden shed, single garage, and secure double carport complement this splendid property.
